The Continual Pursuit of Excellence

LOOKED AFTER CHILDREN
POLICY

REVIEW: ANNUALLY

LAST REVIEW DATE: Sept 2023

INTRODUCTION

Busbridge Infant School is committed to providing quality education for all its pupils, based on equality of opportunity, access and outcomes. 'Promoting the Education of Looked-After Children and Previously Looked-After Children' (DfE, 2018) states that "Looked-after and previously looked-after children start with the disadvantage of their pre-care experiences and, often, have special educational needs." They are therefore vulnerable to underachieving and we recognise our responsibility in ensuring that these children have the maximum opportunity to reach their full educational potential.

A 'Looked-After Child' is defined in Section 22 of the Children Act 1989 as "a child (0-18 years of age) who is subject to a care order (or an interim care order) or who is accommodated by the local authority."

'Previously Looked-After Children' are no longer looked after by a local authority in England and Wales (as defined by the Children Act 1989 or Part 6 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014) because they are the subject of an adoption, special guardianship or child arrangements order; or were adopted from 'state care' outside England and Wales. 'State care' is care provided by a public authority, a religious organisation, or any other organisation whose sole or main purpose is to benefit society.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the SEND, Inclusion, Pupil Premium and Teaching and Learning policies.

Looked-After Children or Previously Looked-After Children may (or may not) have some or all the following issues:

- low self esteem
- poor education standards due to time out of school
- delayed social/emotional/ cognitive development
- be bullied or bully others.
- be prone to mental health issues
- be isolated with few friends
- have behavioural issues.
- poor attachments to others.
- have a need to be very private.

This makes them an extremely vulnerable group in terms of education and future life-chances. We are committed to ensuring that these children are supported as fully as possible and will ensure that the following are in place, and are working effectively:

- A Designated Teacher for Looked-After Children
- Engage with the Virtual School to create and maintain the Personal Education Plan (PEP) for Looked-After Children
- Staff have a clear understanding of confidentiality and issues that affect looked after children.
- Effective strategies that supports the education of this vulnerable group.

The Personal Education Plan (PEP)

Statutory guidance published in 'Promoting the Education of Looked-After Children and Previously Looked-After Children' (DfE, 2018) states that all looked-after children must have a care plan, of which the PEP is an integral part. We at Busbridge Infant School recognise our responsibility for contributing to the creation and maintenance of this document and work in collaboration with the Virtual School to ensure that all the needs of the Looked-After Child are being met.

The PEP should:

- Be initiated as part of the care plan.
- Be an evolving record of what needs to happen for looked-after children to enable them to make at least expected progress and fulfil their potential.
- Reflect the importance of a personalised approach to learning that meets the child's identified educational needs, raises aspirations and builds life chances.

The quality of the PEP is the joint responsibility of the local authority that looks after the child and the school. Social workers, carers, VSHs, designated teachers and, as appropriate, other relevant professionals will work closely together. All of those involved in the PEP process at all stages should involve the child (according to understanding and ability) and, where appropriate, the child's parent and/or relevant family member.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DESIGNATED TEACHER

The Designated Teacher should:

- Be an advocate for Looked-After Children.

- Ensure that each child in public care (if they wish) has an identified member of staff that they can talk to (this should be based on the child's request and may not necessarily be the Designated Teacher).
- Co-ordinate support for the child in the school and liaise with other professionals and carers as necessary.
- Ensure staff receive relevant information and training and act as an advisor to staff and governors.
- Ensure confidentiality for individual children and only share personal information on a need-to-know basis.

- Encourage Looked-After Children to participate in extra-curricular activities and out of hours learning, where feasible.
